HOME (GR.V) DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Jaipur, July 19, 2020

S.O. 301 :-Government of Rajasthan revokes all previous general consents issued earlier by the State Government under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment (DSPE) Act, 1946 (Act No.25 of 1946) vide any previous letters or notifications, including Notification No.F.25(4)Home-5/88 dated 6th January, 1989.

It is further clarified that Government of India vide D.O. Letter No.228/8/89-AVD-11 dated November 21, 1989 had sought a fresh general consent from Government of Rajasthan on account of various amendments and other changes that were made in various Acts of Parliament from time to time. A refusal by the State Government to accord such general consent was conveyed on behalf of the Government of Rajasthan to Government of India vide letter No.F.2/8(110)Home-5/81 dated 26th June, 1990. This incorporates the formal stand of the State Government that Government of Rajasthan does not accord general consent under Section 6 of the DSPE Act, 1946, for investigation of any of the offences or class of offences under section 3 of the said Act by the Delhi Special Police Establishment (CBI) and each case. No general consent has been accorded by Government of Rajasthan under Section 6 of the DSPE Act thereafter.

Hence, in view of revocation of all previous general consents issued earlier vide notifications, prior consent of Government of Rajasthan shall be required to be taken on a case-to-case basis for investigation of any offence or class of offences under Section 3 of the DSPE Act, 1946 by the Delhi Special Police Establishment.

All consents accorded earlier by Government of Rajasthan in specific individual cases under Section 6 of DSPE Act, 1946, shall continue to remain valid.
